MOUNTAIN SENTINEL.

Andrew J. Rhey, Editor.

EBENSBURG, PA.

Thursday, Aug. 4, 1853.

FOR GOVERNOR IN 1854,

WILLIAM BIGLER

Subject to the decision of the Democratic State

For State Senator, Cyrus L. Pershing, of Johnstown

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Judge of the Supreme Court, JOHN C. KNOX, of Tioga County.

For Canal Commissioner, THOMAS H. FORSYTH, of Philadelphia County.

For Auditor General, EPHRAIM BANKS, of Mifflin County.

For Surveyor General, J. PORTER BRAWLEY, of Crawford County.

County Nominations.

For Assembly, THOMAS COLLINS, of Summitville.

For Treasurer, A. J. RHEY, of Ebensburg. For District Attorney,

T. L. HEYER, of Johnstown. For Commissioner,

JOHN H. DOUGLASS, of Clearfield. For County Surveyor,

THOMAS M'CONNELL, of Summerhill. For Auditor,

JOSEPH HOGE, of Carroll.

Hon. John C. Knox.

This gentleman received the nomination from the State Democratic Convention, for Judge of the Supreme Court, by acclamation. He is favorably known to the people of this county, having established, during the brief period he was tation. They well believe that he possesses all requisite legal qualifications for this high and to elect him by a tremendous majority.

Gayety in Ebensburg.

the heat, but a week's stay satisfied him that he "Cambrian." There's fun ahead. had jumped out of the frying pan into the fire. To the Voters of Cambria, Bedford and Fulton Nevertheless, Saratoga is a gay place, and so is Cape May, Newport and Bedford Springs, mutton and lamb excepted, if the newspapers say truly, and of course they do. And Ebensburg, House of Representatives. In just surprise at is also gay, dear reader. What with numerous ty whose organ that Convention appeared to be. of justice to those brave men who perilled their ter into each stall, &c. visitors, parties, pic-nics, hunting expeditions, felt so grateful. But it appears from the editofishing excursions, pretty ladies and gallant gen- rials and communications in the "Cambrian" of tlemen, there is no lack of enjoyment, and an last week, that my name was only used for a last week, that my name was only used for a last week, that my name was only used for a last week, that my name was only used for a last week, that my name was only "Poker" and "Brag."

who deservedly enjoys a solid reputation as the structed to support me at Bedford, denied the any in the vicinity, who, withal, possesses a rich either recommend me or appoint them. treasure within his breast-a heart, from which a fountain of sympathies and kind feelings ever refusing to support any man it may name; - Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, disposed, can refresh themselves with a general flow-who has been the life and light of the so- ever ready to contribute all my mind, energy the community has lost an able and profound cial circle for some years, gave a brilliant party and means to the advancement of their doctrines Jurist, a useful citizen, and an honest man. To at his residence on Friday evening last. There on their part, of using my name for the purpose we offer sincerely this expression of our sympawas present a gay and joyous assemblage of of injuring or suppressing the claims of any as-"brave women and fair men," consisting of res- pirant . idents of the town, and visitors from Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Baltimore. An invitation having twenty-one delegates say is spurious. simplicity, not with any intention of being "a heretofore chiel amang ye takin' notes", but for the enjoyment of the dance. Slowly and stately we entered the room, and gazed upon the congregated beauty and fashion, while through every pulse the soft persuasive voice of music stole, falling upon the ear in cadence sweet! and holding in at Harrisburg, on Thursday last, and, as was mighty chains the hearts of all. Pausing to expected, unanimously nominated John C. Knox, contemplate the scene,

"We gazed upon the dance, where ladies hight Were moving in the light Of mirrors and of lamps," fairest bosoms heaved happily beneath the win- is no doubt of the triumphant election of Judge happy, the enjoying moments of Youth. No balanced mind he has exhibited, and the kindly

"Grace of motion, and of look, the smooth And swimming majesty of step and tread, The symmetry of form and feature, set The soul affoat, even like delicious airs Of flute and harp."

Hearts were lost; ours among the number, whether to be regained or not the future will and faithful exponent of Democratic principles, cent manner in which they prepared and furnish-ed the good things with which the table was so Supreme Court, and pledge him our undivided Nor profusely laden; everything denoted that they had bestowed most considerate attention upon the wants of the inner man. Long may they live to be guardian angels o'er the life of man presiding, and making happy his earthly path-way.

Supreme Court, and pledge him our undivided support.

Resolved, That this Convention recommend to the Democratic party of Pennsylvania, the whole State Ticket, as now presented, and relying upon the same party, who have ever proved true to their professions, look forward to its triumphant election on the second Tuesday of Oction and making happy his earthly path-way.

Supreme Court, and pledge him our undivided support.

Resolved, That this Convention recommend to the Democratic party of Pennsylvania, the whole State Ticket, as now presented, and relying upon the same party, who have ever proved true to their professions, look forward to its triumphant election on the second Tuesday of Oction and the world, to bear grumblers com-

LOCAL AND EDITORIAL ITEMS.

On Saturday the Temperance men of the coun-

Springs or Cape May offer so attractive a feature as good trout fishing ?

declines being a candidate of the Whig party for the Legislature, will be noticed in this Subject to the decision of the Senatorial Conference. of the Standard, that persons from Blair, or any Gen. Pierce and his administration. adjoining county, will remain at home, and not curiosity which they may have in their natures.

> Der The Cambrian complains of the unfairness of the proceedings of the late Whig Convencorrect and verbatim account from them, and would suggest the propriety of their being con-

kept in superior style, as it is the determination opportunity being given to witness and canvass in the Whig ranks in the county and district- politics of this State. Young America and Fifty-four Forty.

like much to know by what means Yo ung Ameritire when they reach us. A New York editor visited Saratoga to escape ca caused so great a change in the tone of the Resolutions were then adopted praying the less, the gallant Pennsylvania militia will appre-

Counties:

that those who were appointed conferees and in-tage of others, I decline a nomination which

A private citizen, MICHAEL DAN MAGEHAN.

Democratic State Convention.

nominating a candidate for Supreme Judge of Argus. this State, in place of the late Judge Gibson, met of Venango county. At the death of Judge Gibson, Governor Bigler, in obedience to public until the meeting of this Convention, and now we have seen published :the selection has been ratified in the most comand as they danced away the joyous hours, and plimentary manner by the Convention. There and down the middle, it was the spell that made mental peculiarities of Mr. Knox, that we need restless the merry blue and lustrous black eyes not on this occasion repeat our criticism, more & set the hearts of all romancing. One there was, than to say, he is honest, he is capable, he is their amusements. They represent us as a com-(and there are others who did, no doubt, experi-fearless, he is independent. With these qualifi-munity of snobs, of the deepest dye. We are Cormick, Bears, Mackey, Cowan, Murray, Hull,

These resolutions cover the whole ground, plain, now and then, of a bad dinner, or an unsuagament was and coming as they do from a State Convention comfortable room. But such complaints are riors here are Col. Moore, Col. Duncan, Capt. labor, by the cultivation of the mind, by the fear On Saturday the Temperance men of the coun-ty hold their Delegate election in the several ion they occupy towards the National and State administrations. Both are fully and unqualifi- geon, who shall be nameless. We went on a fishing exeursion on Tuess in the distinguished Democrats who are alluded edly endorsed, and entire confidence expressed day last, along with several friends from Pitts- to in connection with the Chief Magistracy of the burg, and caught one hundred and forty-seven Nation and State. Gen. Pierce's devotion to of the "speckled beauties." Can Bedford the principles of his inaugural, has well merited the principles of his mangural, has well merited the title of a faithful exponent of Democratic Company of gentlemen, at the head of whom are Recently the Committee on Amusements after sies so dreadful, of socialism or anti-socialism principles, while his ardent desire to sustain the full measure of his country's glery both at home The eard of M. D. Magenan, Esq., who and abroad, has justly endeared him to the Demeracy of the Nation. From the day that Penasylvania cast her vote for Gen. Pierce to the present, her Democracy have never once faltered paper. The Whig cauldron boils; the fight in the confidence they reposed in the wisdom, thickens. The question now is-Will anybody intelligence and patriotism of the President, and they have thus taken the earliest official opportunity to spread that fact before the country .-JAMES SHIRLEY will be executed in Hol. Upon all the principles contained in the inaugulidaysburg, on Friday, August 12th. He de ral of Gen. Pierce, as well as the line of polic clares he is not afraid to die, but detests the pursued by his administration, the party in this method, and the stigma which attaches itself to State is a unit, and the resolutions standing a the name of an executed criminal, alone troub- the head of these reported by the committee, les and unnerves him. We hope, with our friend a fair exposition of their feelings with regard to

The second resolution is pointed at Governor flock to Hollidaysburg to satisfy any morbid Bigler and his administration, and is open, plan and explicit. Its approval of the administration of Governor Bigler is hearty and emphatic, and cannot be mistaken. If the enemies of the Gov. tion, as published in the Democratic papers of had wanted an issue here was the gauntlet this place. We presume his acquaintance with thrown down to them, in open convention, and the Spirits would have enabled him to obtain a in the face of the assembled Democracy of the whole State. The resolution is not ambiguous sulted so that his conscience may receive a qui- nor does it deal in mincing, equivocal terms. It states the position of the Convention openly. Maj. G. W. DANNALS, late of the "Logan and in that manner it was passed. This is a House," Hollidaysburg, has taken Otto's hotel, compliment to Governor Bigler, which is truly the Washington House, and has changed its name encouraging. After nearly half of the term for to the "Dannals House." This house will be which he was elected has expired, and after full of the proprietor to bestow every attention to his official actions, the Democracy of the State, his guests. The Restaurant will be unsurpass- in convention assembled, have in the most pubed, and furnished with every imaginable delica- lie manner given their sanction to his adminiscy, such as frogs, fish, game and vegetables of all tration, and expressed their full confidence in his kinds, in and out of season. The Major descrees "patriotism, integrity and devotion to the principles of the Democratic party." This move-Ber In the last number of the Sentinel we said ment on the part of the State Convention is full there was fun ahead-that confusion prevailed of signification, and will make its mark upon the

that the contest for Senator was between | Col. Robert Tyler then offered a series of Resolutions (which we regret we could not obtain) Well, the fun has come at last. In the last in favor of the National platform of principles number of the "Cambrian," Mr. White's claims on which the Democracy of the whole Nation ing of friendship, politically, for any of the official acts. The Resolutions are a death-blow next Congress to pass a law giving every soldier ciate this compliment.

over-abundance of gayety reigns predominantly. particular purpose; that the printed proceed- of the late Judge Gibson, of our State, are refer- hesitation in saying it will be truly elegant and One of our hospitable citizens, a gentleman ings of that convention were not correct, and red to in the following truthful and elegant min- most convenient. Each dog will have his own ner. This State testimonful to two such distin- apartment, where, if surly, he can dine and sleep heartiest laugher and most incessant talker of right of the convention, or a portion of it, to guished Americans is both appropriate and com-

Asking for nothing at the hands of the party | Resolved, That in the death of the Hon. Join tants can meet and greet each other, as is cuswhich I have so long and so faithfully served, nor B. Gibson, formerly Chief Justice, and late a tomary among dogs of respectability; or, if so

Refusing to be used for the benefit or advan- and general loss our country has suffered in the been extended us we were present, not in gay Throwing myself upon the people; looking on blemish. His death has produced in all hearts upright, useful and patriotic, without spot or bones in peace. attire, but robed in our accustomed mountain low demagogues with contempt, I remain as a lasting sorrow. To his friends and relatives we desire to express our sympathies.

The action of the Convention was cordial and harmonious, and the most determined spirit was manifested to sustain the entire Democratic State This body, upon which devolved the duty of ticket at the coming election .- Philadelphia

The following letter, a rare and racy one, we copy from the columns of the Pittsburgh Chron- which the table groans. icle. It possesses peculiar interest, and is the desire, appointed Mr. Knox to fill the vacancy, best description of "life at the Springs" which tation, of which we may well be proud. (I had

BEDFORD SPRINGS, Saturday, July 30. ter roses' biossoms, we thought of the glad, the Knox. His high legal abilities, his elevated so- a letter descriptive of some of the incidents of should not be given, as they were so overcome Union was made in part for commerce, familiar all seemed at first unchanged. The sun of a this season, as several persons but imperfectly by the delicate compliments contained in a re- with the habits of our long line of coast, know- bright day, from which, however, something of thoughts seemed gathering round which troub- qualities of his nature, all go to make up a sum acquainted with the English language, have cent letter in the Baltimore Patriot, that they led them, for when the sound of flute and violin, of popularity that will make his success a fixed written letters from here to papers in Pittsburgh could not survive another such attack.) At pregave signal sweet in that old hall, of hands across fact. We have before so fully alluded to the and Baltimore, which letters are calculated to sent we have those merchant princes, Messieurs deceive the readers as to the company here and Lewis Hutchinson, and Francis G. Bailey; and she had inflicted them, his opposition to the war Some of those whom on earth he level best, cations his career on the bench must be benefi- not so, O Chronicle, but, on the contrary, are a Russell and Bollman. These gentlemen are all Col. Black, Chairman of the Committee on most respectable, cultivated, and elegant committee of the ster-Resolutions, offered the following, which were pany. There may be exceptions, but I know | Crockford's. I regret to say, however, that sev- ling and unusual qualities of his public virtue. pect of one great monument, inscribed with his them not. Snobs we have none, nor doth a sin- eral of them, who, from their age and respecta-Resolved, That in the election of Franklin Pierce the people have received an able, fearless, and dark-specific principles and faithful exponent of Democratic principles and faithful exponent of Democratic principles. Shall be in all the future of a particular argument o develope. It is the way of life, yet our consola- and a Chief Magistrate of whom the Union may maid or matron, and from the fullest observa- hideous with their revels-even disturbing the tion is that we stand not alone. The assemblage well feel proud. His administration has thus tion, I believe that no one concerns him or her- Tiger as he lay in his lair; for know, O Chronienjoyed themselves fully, "and all went merry far proven eminently successful, and given sure self, about the affairs of his or her neighbor.— cle ! that we have amongst us a Royal Bengal electioneering, and even Burke tells you that at same glance shall greet and bless the Harbor of as a marriage-bell." At a late hour, when we dared not lengthen those sweet moments, the low-whispered farewell had to be said, and the low-whispered farewell had to company departed, taking one food look, one parting glance, in hopes that it they might be present in those dreams which they might be present in the said produgious claws. Instant is inteen feet they may all day long, in the extent sometime of their severity. But a last is inteen feet the, and produgious claws. Instant is inteen feet the feet e the ladies for the magnifi- unanimously approve the nomination of the Hon. their flirtation. Such conduct is beyond

Bedford is as free from that slight objection as favored region.

I any place in the world,) to hear grumblers com
The military have mustered in great force this that by all possible acquired sobriety of mind, ent the first lady.

These resolutions cover the whole ground, plain, now and then, of a bad dinner, or an un- season. Among the most distinguished war- by asking reverently of the past, by obedience company at any watering place before, nor never Major Reynolds, Gen. Porter Wilson, Major phraseology was rather of an old and simple

Company of gentlemen, at the head of whom are Maj. Chambers McKibben, and Gen. Geo. Wash-mature consideration ordered the erection of a hollow, and shallow ambition masks itself—the ington Lauman. They paid $175,000 for them, greased-pole forty feet high in front of the main syren song which would lure the pilot from his and intend expending about $200,000, in ma- building. This pole was well so aped and grea- course. But I say that he did sympathise with king improvements, now much needed. I am sed until it was as smooth as glass; on top was them; and because he did he came to them not king improvements, now much needed. I am sed until it was as smooth as grass; on top was happy to be able to state a fact most honorable fastened a purse containing $50, more or less, to please, but with measures to serve them; not to those gentlemen, as it is cheering to me; that and to bear off this purse all manner of men, that his popular sympathies were less, but that is, the first money expended, will be in the erec- old and young, black and white, were invited .- his personal and intellectual dignity and his tion of a Church, upon the classic ground of A young mountaineer, a second Norval, who is And on the 7th day of March, and down to the Crockford's. It will be of the pointed Gothic supposed to have taken lessons in climbing from final scene, might we not still say as ever betion of a Church, upon the classic ground of A young mountaineer, a second Norval, who is public morality were greater. style of architecture, with a tower, and a par- a bear, climbed to the top and bore off the prize fore, that "all the ends he aimed at were his sonage attached. The Church will be placed amid the shoats of the multitude, the waving of country's, his God's, and truth's." He declaunder the charge, and the parsonage appropria- handkerchief in hundreds of fair hands, and the red, "I speak to-day for the preservation of the under the charge, and the parsonage appropria-ted to the use, of the first Minister of the Gospel swelling notes of the Germania. On Thursday day out of a solicitous and anxious heart for the who arrives at the Springs during the season. night last we had a magnificent display of fire- restoration to the country of that quiet and har-This arrangement it is thought, will give rise to works, under the management of the Amusement mony which make the blessings of this Union so This arrangement it is thought, will give rise to works, under the management of the Annaschent rich and so dear to us all. These truths are the motives and the sole motives that influence Clergymen who have been in the habit of coming actually fired off the squibs themselves! This, me." If in that declaration he was sincere, was here. Texas, so called, is to be demolished, and however creditable to their courage, was unfor- he not bound in conscience to give the counsels a Club-house erected in its stead. This Club- tunate for us, as the gentleman who took charge of that day? What were they? What was the house will be constructed on the grandest scale, of the rockets, (Mr. S. M. S., of Baltimore, the single one for which his political morality was containing four fine Bowling Alleys, ten Billiard Secretary of the Committee,) not having been the federal constitution, ordaining the restitu-Tables, and a most spacious Bar-Room. In the educated as a pyrotechmist, placed them on the gion of fugitive slaves should be executed accorrear will be the mint-patch, handsomely orna- frame upside down and fired them off. The ef- ding to its true meaning. This only. And might mented, and intersected by walks laid out after feet was certainly novel and curious, and if they this part, and in all, for the preservation of the the manner of a worm-fence. The third and had had sufficient power doubtless they would Union fourth stories are to be fitted up as sleeping have performed a brilliant subterranean journey; Under his oath to support it, and to support apartments for Young America, with porches but being simply sky rockets they only stood it all, and with his opinions of that duty so long where they can air themselves, and cool their with their noses to the ground and fizzled off. - tion, on some great days, he had found the opyouthful arder in the moonlight. Within this One of them, however, by accident, being placed portunity of his personal glory, might be not, in house they will be expected to make as much in the proper position did absolutely dart into good conscience, support it, and all of it, even noise as possible, especially towards morning, the air, and falling on the mountain set it on if he could not, and if no human intelligence when people are apt to sleep entirely too sound- fire; whereupon one of the ladies remarked that could certainly know that the extreme evil would ly. To aid them in these laudable efforts, each Mr. S __ r might burn the mountain but that Was it so recent a doctrine of his, that the Conroom will be provided with a long tin horn, a he could never set the river on fire. drum, a pair of cymbals, or some other soft- Mr. M -- n, of Philadelphia, with the great- dividual consciences, that you should ascribe it over the porch into the grounds below. The dles without flinching. proprietors thus hope to merit the patronage of After the powder had all been burnt, the emp- this been his distinction, his speciality-almost Young America, and by these innocent relaxa- ty boxes in which the squibs had been placed, the foible of his greatness—the darling and masare viewed in a much more favorable light than rest. They were adopted as an expression of the work as are invain the previous number of that paper. True, the will of the Democracy of Pennsylvania, and lids. The distinguished military individuals war dance around the flames to the warlike and nature for more than sixty years—that from the Messrs. Hutchinson and King are lauded to the they show that the party in the Old Keystone is above mentioned, design constructing another, inspiring air of Old Dan Tucker, after which time he bought his first copy of the Constitution skies as "nice men," but M'Cormick thinks a unit on that platform of principles which car- and more elegant building, which will perhaps, they retired to the dining-room and refreshed on the handkerchief, and revered parental lips President Judge of this district, a bright reputation. They well believe that he presented to the unity redict to the unity re shall see what we shall see. We have no feel. the Nation, and on which he has based all his that this edifice shall be called the Barracks, and have been told by one who was present, that the verence to God, and the belief and love of His intend devoting it exclusively to the use of the appearance of the Committee on this occasion, Scriptures, along important office, and when the day of contest gentlemen running, but would prefer immeasure at sectionalism in all its forms, and shadow baye the choice of apartments according to their comes the Democracy of Cambria will nobly do rably to see Mr. White nominated. In case of forth a re-united Democracy on the old Jeffer- have the choice of apartments, according to their they were by the smoke of the conflict, and rentheir part in aiding their brethren in the State his nomination, we could feel sure of electing sonian doctrines of state Rights and National rank, and the whole establishment will be gov dered ferocious by many libations, their talk —just in its ethics, consummate in its practical our nominee, whoever he might be. We should Security. We will publish the Resolutions enmonses will be made by beat of drum. Doubt-

160 acres of the public land. This was a wise stables will be demolished-especially the old marked to an interesting young lady who was posite party, and the whole country, so held it Without the least solicitation on my part, the and patrictic response to the desires of the Dem- log one so long and ably occupied by Col. D --- hanging on his arm, that we had dears enough union, of happiness, of renown, bore constant late Whig Convention of Cambria county unan- ocracy of this State, and we hope it will be fol- and Mr. R --- n-and new and handsome ones at Bedford already. imously nominated me as a candidate for the lowed by the other States, until the public mind will be erected in their stead, with all modern If any events of an extraordinary and interest chanced that certain emergent and rare occadear, delightful, romantic, ever-cool Ebensburg, this movement, I awaited the action of the par-

A Dog-Palace, for the benefit of all Pointer will open into a large hall where all the inhabifight. The building has ingenious contrivance

At present, the dogs visiting Bedford for their health, sleep mostly under the beds of their judge of the quality of his political ethics, in leyes should be turned to behold for the first masters' friends in Crockford's, where they re- opposition. Did those cloquent lips, at a time time the sun in heaven. death of Vice President King. As his life was pose secure from flies, and pick their mutton of life when vehemence and imprudence are ex-> contemplate, I am unable to say; but this I am soundest expositors of all creeds have allowed house which he so passionately loved, the chamauthorized to state, that hereafter the house will it? Did he ever breathe a syllable which could ber where he died, the grave in which they laid be kept on strictly temperance principles.

> here, and it is a pleasant sight to see the crowd tended to check the tide of a new and intense till the heavens be no more. In all that spacious of "fair women and brave men," filling the spa-cious dining hall, and devoting themselves with be fulfilled? These questions, in their substance, traits, the table on which he wrote, the scientific of "fair women and brave men," filling the spagraceful enthusiasm to the good things with he put to Mr. Calhoun, in 1828, in the Senate, culture of the land, the course of agricultural

Our beautiful city has sent a large represen- Webster, and who had just insinuated a re- mals and implements of husbandry, the trees a list of ladies prepared as part of this letter, Did Mr. Webster content himself even with obbut I have been waited upon by them in a body, jecting to the details of the mode in which the which he used to sit to feel the south west wind Dear Chronicle: —I am induced to address you requesting that their names and descriptions administration waged the war! No, indeed at evening, or hear the breathings of the sea, or the not less audible music of the starry heavens, Indeed, so correct is public opinion on the sub- Tiger, of feroclous disposition, insatiable appe- popular elections the most rigorous casuists the Pilgrims, and the Tomb of Webster. praise.

Nor does any one ever express any opinion of any other lady or gentleman, save in terms the most considerate and flattering.

It is common at places of this kind, where all the comforts of home cannot be had, (although the conjoy the salubrious air of that the comforts of home cannot be had, (although the conjoy the salubrious air of that the composition of the conjoy the salubrious air of that the composition of the conjoy the salubrious air of that the conjoy the conjoy the salubrious air of that the conjoy the salubrious air of that the conjoy the conjoy the conjoy the salubrious air of that the conjoy th hardihood of some young men, that they take arts, and he never saw a day of temptation when to Mrs. Pierce. The embroidery is said to the comforts of home cannot be had, (although he has retired to enjoy the salubrious air of that his youth, by his counsels bequeathed on the thought, and a compliment not only to Mrs.

never heard here, except from one old curmud- Beers, Major Lymington, Col. Curtin, Gen. Ir- and worship of God, we educate ourselves for win, Col. Berryhill, Col. Joseph Ottinger, and the future that is revealing. Men said he did Take us for all in all, there never was such a Brevet Major-General John Watson, Gen. Porter, not sympathise with the masses, because his toned musical instruments. One hundred pairs est presence of mind, filled his boots with water, what had he, clear down to the 7th of March of old boots will be considerately placed at the then rushing up the mountain side extinguished that more truly individualized him-what had doors, each night, which these youths are ex- the fire, before much damage had been done, he more characteristically his own-wherewithpected to find much pleasure and profit, in filling Mr. C ... I, of Philadelphia distinguished him- al had he to glory more or other than all beside, with water, changing their places, or throwing self by gallantly discharging three Roman Can-and raffled off. Col. D .-- n, being the fortu, he felt respect, instructors, theological and mowho served in any of the wars of this Republic. The fast men have not been forgotten. The nate winner. Mr. R e. ral teachers, his entire party connection, the op-

These Springs have recently been sold to a have recently left.

P. S. The furniture and all the live stock is uses-that he had so acquitted himself of that and Setter dogs, is also contemplated. I have included in the sale. Game is quite plenty here opportunity as to have won the title of its Ex-

ELOQUENT ADDRESS.

Eulogy on Daniel Webster by Rufus

College, the Hon. Rufus Choate delivered a truly glowing eulogy on the Life and Character of by the great law of sequences-a great law of Daniel Webster. We annex its concluding pas- cause and effect, running back to his mother's pocted, if ever, and not ungraceful, let fall even conclusion. My heart goes back into the coffin one word of faction? Did he ever deny one there with him, and I would pause. I went-it What further improvements the proprietors power to the general government, which the is a day or two since-alone, to see again the excite a region, a State, a family of States, him down-all habited as when against the Uunion-which could hold out hope At present there is a large number of visitors or aid to the enemy ?- which sought to turn or nationality then bursting up, to flow and burn and calm scene, all things to the eye looked unand that great man-one of the authors of the occupation, the coming in of harvests, fruit of war-just then, only then, in relation to Mr. the seed his own hand had scattered, the aniproach on his conduct in the war, was silent. planted by him in lines, in copses, in orchards, administration waged the war? No, indeed. at evening, or hear the breathings of the sea, or en from everybody's sea by embargo and war, temperately on them all, filled the air on all burned to go to the gun-deck and avenge the sides with the utterance of life, and gleamed on long wrongs of England on the element where the long line of ocean. deck was her field of fame. Non illi imperium preside, the great presence to be with you. You pelagi saccum que tritendum, sed nobis, sorte da- might expect to hear again the rich and playful

Look in how manly a sort he not merely con-name, and sacred to his memory. And such it his coun sy: Politicians got an advantage of The sharp grief of love and friendship will be him for this while he lived; let the dead have come soothed. Men will repair thither, as they school, rejecting the nauseous and vain repeti-McKibbin, Col. Gilmore and Gen. Lauman tions of humanity and philanthropy, and progress and brotherhood, in which may lurk here.

stiution was obligatory upon the national and inthe great compact of union and justice? Had not year of life had deepened the original impresand clear witness to it in his mind, and that it cate its authority, to unfold its workings and pounder and Defender, so that his proudest memories, his most prized renown, referred to it, and were entwined with it, and say whether, with such antecedents, readiness to execute, or disposition to evade, would have been the hardest to explain, likeliest to suggest, the surmise of a new temptation! He who knows anything of the man, knows that his vote of beginning the restoration of harmony by keeping the whole constitution, was determined, was necessitated, arms, as resistless as the law which moves the system about the sun-and that he must have He came into Congress, opposed, as I have said, to the war—and behold him, if you would vision, that within the next natural day his

"His look drew audience still as night, tones of the voice of the old hospitality. Yet a